DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 11, 12 and 15-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Heo et al. (US 5,977,624).

Heo (Fig 2A, 6A) discloses a semiconductor device, comprising: a semiconductor chip (11) having a top surface, said semiconductor chip carrying a first electrode (12); A polyimide (Col.5, Lines 17-19) circuit substrate (21) attached to a top surface of said semiconductor chip, said circuit substrate carrying thereon a predetermined conductor pattern (26) including a second electrode and a third electrode; a solder resist layer (22) provided on said circuit substrate; an adhesive resin layer (30) intervening between said top surface of said semiconductor chip and said circuit substrate; a spherical electrode (60) formed in an opening in said solder resist layer on said circuit substrate in correspondence to said third electrode, a bonding wire (40) electrically interconnecting said second electrode of said predetermined conductor pattern on said circuit substrate and said first electrode on said semiconductor chip; and a resin potting (50) encapsulating said bonding wire including said first and second electrodes, said chip and said resin potting being defined by a flat common edge surface when viewed in a direction substantially perpendicular to a principal surface of said substrate, wherein said resin layer has a composition substantially identical with a composition of said resin potting; wherein said resin; and said resin forms a sidewall covering a side wall of the circuit substrate.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Heo as applied to claim 1 and further in combination with Nakashima.

Heo discloses the same invention as applicant except that the circuit substrate is polyimide instead of epoxy, Nakashima (Col. 10, Lines 4-8) shows that polyimide and epoxy substrates are an equivalent structure known in the art known in the art. Therefore, because these two known materials are art recognized equivalents at the time the invention was made, one of ordinary skill in the art would have found it obvious to substitute an epoxy substrate for a polyimide substrate.

Further, it would have been obvious to form the substrate of epoxy, since it has been held that to be within the general skill of a worker in the art to select known material on the basis of its suitability for intended use as a matter of obvious design choice. In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416 (1960).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
